

The 2022 Public Statement
of the

TELECOMMUNICATIONS AUTHORITY OF TRINIDAD AND TOBAGO

in compliance with sections 7, 8 and 9 of the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) 1999

In accordance with Sections 7, 8 and 9 of the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) 1999 the Telecommunications Authority of Trinidad and Tobago (“the Authority”) is required by law to annually update and publish the statements listing the documents and information generally available to the public.

The Act gives members of the public a legal right for each person to:

1. access information held by the Authority.
2. have official information relating to him/herself amended where it is incomplete, incorrect or misleading.
3. obtain reasons for adverse decisions made regarding an applicant’s request for information under the FOIA.
4. complain to the Ombudsman and to apply to the High Court for judicial review to challenge adverse decisions made under the FOIA.

Section 7 Statements

Section 7 (1) (a) (i)

The Authority is a body corporate established pursuant to the Telecommunications Act, Chap. 47:31 (“the Act”). The Act vests the Authority with powers to:

1. create an environment for sustainable competition, investment opportunities, and the orderly development of the telecommunications and broadcasting sectors.
2. ensure the efficient and effective utilisation of the national spectrum resource, and the harmonisation of related systems.
3. promote and protect the interests of the consumer.
4. promote universal access to telecommunications services.
5. operate consistent with Trinidad and Tobago’s international commitments in relation to the liberalisation of the telecommunications sector.
6. regulate broadcasting services consistent with the Constitution.

In furthering these objectives, the Authority is required to deal, on a regular basis, with the providers of telecommunications and broadcasting networks and services.

The Authority also has responsibility to users of those networks and services in relation to quality of services and network standards, consumer rights and obligations and the handling of consumer complaints, as well as any matters ancillary to the provisions of those networks and services as they impact upon the public.

Furthermore, the Authority seeks to involve the public in consultations on the formulation of its policies and regulations as they apply to both the public and private network service providers. This is to ensure that the policies and regulations meet and take into account the users of such networks and services, and the public at large.

Mission

Developing a dynamic, progressive ICT environment, through efficient service delivery, to foster quality, affordable services, together with innovative and sustainable businesses in the emerging digital economy.

Vision

A leading ICT regulator, enabling an empowered and connected society.

Structure and Functions of the Authority

The Board

The Board which is appointed by the President of the Republic of Trinidad and Tobago manages the affairs of the Authority and exercises and performs such duties as are conferred upon it by the Act and by any other written law.

The Board comprises the following nine members:

Mr. Gilbert Peterson, S.C. (Chairman)
Dr. Kim Mallalieu (Deputy Chairman)
Mr. Nikolaiski Ali
Mrs. Fatima Aziz-Mohammed
Mr. Keyun Boatwain
Mr. Nigel Cassimire
Mr. Rhondall Feeles
Mrs. Kalana Prince-Wilson
Mr. Devon Seale

Senior Management

The Authority is structured into six divisions – Corporate Communications, Finance and Accounting, Policy Planning and Economics, Legal and Enforcement, Technology and Engineering and General Administration.

Five of the six divisions are headed by an executive officer while the sixth is headed by the Deputy Chief Executive Officer. All executive positions report directly to the CEO.

The Executive Director / Chief Executive Officer

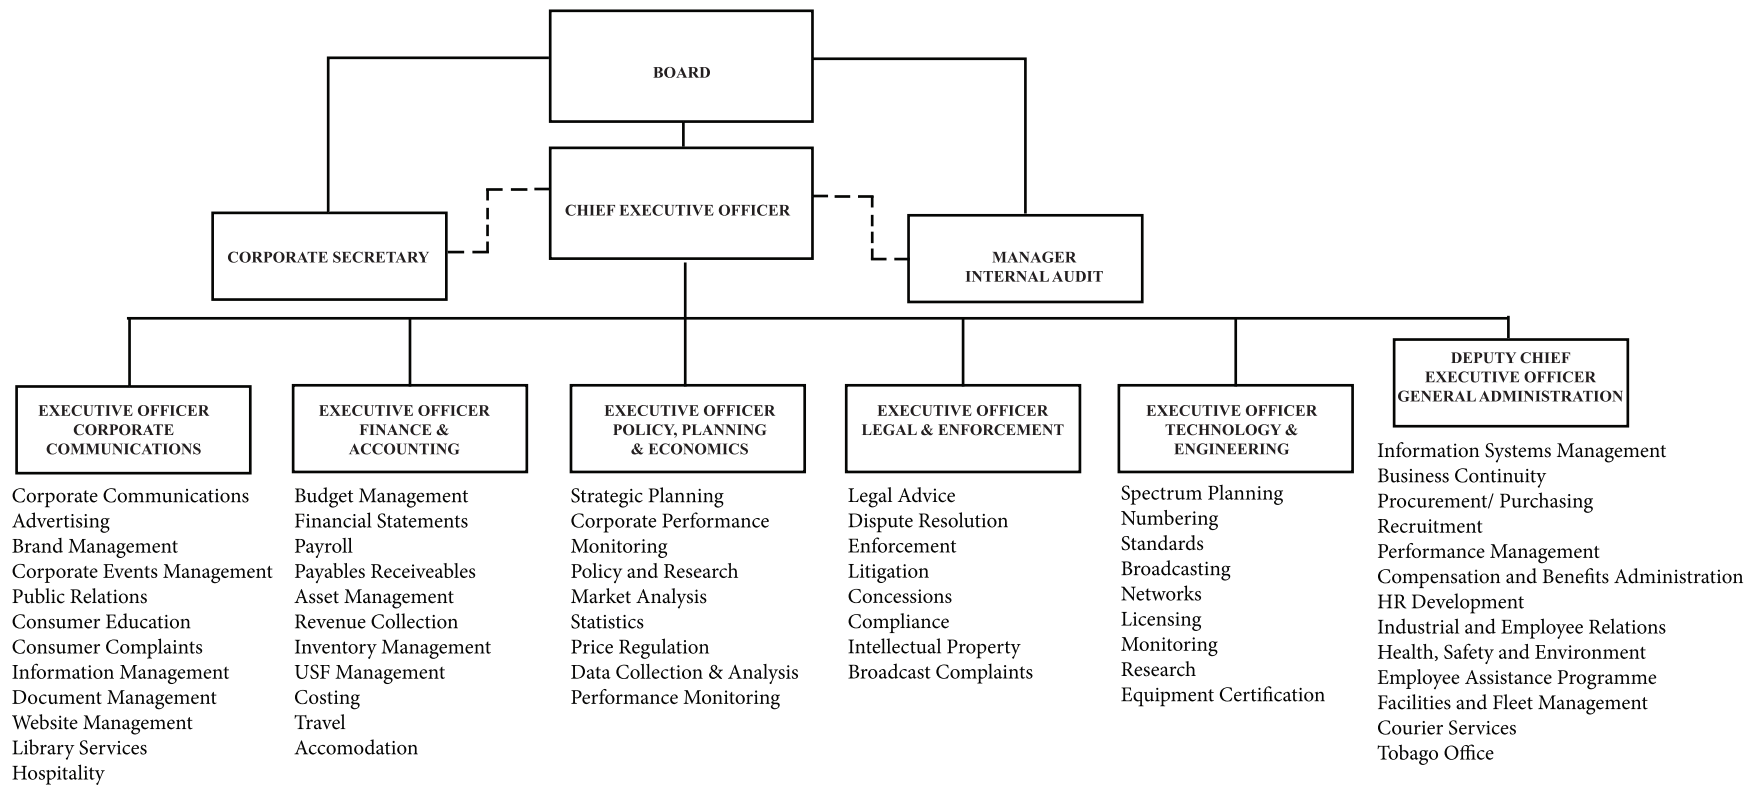

The Authority is managed by the Executive Director, who is the Chief Executive Officer (CEO). The CEO manages the affairs of the Authority subject to the directions of the Board. The CEO reports to the Board of the Authority.

The CEO also has administrative responsibility for the Corporate Secretary, and the Manager, Internal Audit.

Section 7 (1) (a) (iv)

Literature available by subscription

The Authority does not currently publish any documents that are available by way of subscription.

Section 7 (1) (a) (v)

The procedure to be followed when accessing a document from the Authority

General Procedure

The Authority's policy is to answer all oral and written requests for information. However, in order to have the rights given to the public by the FOIA, the applicant must make his/her request in the following manner:

1. Obtain a copy of the appropriate form (Request for Access to Official Documents), which is available in the Authority's reception area and on the website of the Freedom of Information Unit (<http://www.foia.gov.tt>).
2. Information that must be provided to the Authority includes:
  - a. Name of applicant (full name preferred)
  - b. Contact information

- c. Information requested and format to provide the information
- d. Date of request
- e. Signature of applicant
- f. Applications should be addressed to the designated officer at the Authority

3. The completed form may be hand delivered, mailed, or faxed to the Authority at (868) 674 1055.

Addressing requests

To facilitate the prompt handling of a request, all requests should be addressed to the designated officer of the Authority (see section 7(1)(a)(vi)).

Details in the request

Applicants should provide details that will allow for ready identification and location of the records that are being requested. If insufficient information is provided clarification will be sought from the applicant. If the applicant is unsure how to write his/her request or what details to include, he/she should communicate with the Authority's designated officer.

Requests not handled under the FOIA

In accordance with Section 12 of the FOIA, requests that will not be processed are those asking for documents that:

- a. contain information which is open to public access, as part of a public register.
- b. contain information that is available for purchase by the public.
- c. are available for public inspection in a registry maintained by the Registrar General or other public authority.
- d. are stored for preservation or safe custody.

Responding to your request

Retrieving documents

The Authority is only required to furnish copies of documents that it has in its possession or can be retrieved from storage.

Prior to the FOIA, old records may have been destroyed. Granting access to such documents may therefore not be possible. Various laws, regulations and manuals give the time periods for which records may be kept before being disposed. See for reference the Exchequer and Audit Act, Chap 69:01:

http://rgd.legalaffairs.gov.tt/Laws2/Alphabetical\_List/lawspdfs/69.01.pdf

Furnishing documents

An applicant is entitled to access copies of information which the Authority has in its possession, custody or power. The Authority is required to furnish only one (1) copy of a document. If the Authority cannot make a legible copy of a document to be released, it may not attempt to reconstruct it. Instead, the Authority must furnish the best copy possible and note the quality in its reply.

Please note the Authority is not compelled to do the following:

- (a) Create new documents. For example, the Authority is not required to write a new program so that a computer will print information in the format preferred by the applicant.
- (b) Conduct research for the public.

Time limits

General

The FOIA sets a time limit of thirty (30) calendar days from the date the request was received to notify the applicant of the approval or refusal of the request for access to documents. The Authority will acknowledge requests and advise applicants of the status of their requests and the time period in which the information will be provided. Since there is a possibility that requests may be incorrectly addressed or misdirected, applicants may call or write to confirm that the Authority has received the request and to ascertain its status.

Time allowed

The Authority will determine whether to grant requests for access to information as soon as practicable but no later than thirty (30) days from the date the request was received, as required by section 15 of the FOIA. If a decision is taken to grant access to the information requested, applicants will be permitted to inspect the documents and/or be provided with copies.

Refusal of requests

If it is determined that the information requested cannot be disclosed, the applicant is informed of the refusal and the rights of the applicant according to the FOIA.

Section 7 (1) (a) (vi)

Officers in the Authority are responsible for:

- (1) the initial receipt of, and action upon, notices under section 10.
- (2) requests for access to documents under section 13.
- (3) applications for correction of personal information under section 36 of the FOIA.
